Customer Reviews

I've been engaged for over a year and flipping through various planners, books, and magazines in the hopes of finding a planner or book aimed at real, actual, honest to goodness brides for just as long. All of the books out now dealing with weddings, especially planners, are operating under the assumption that all of us are throwing weddings that cost an outrageous amount of money, which involve everything from fireworks to 12 piece orchestras and hundreds of hundreds of guests. That effectively left out people like me, having a smaller, more intimate wedding, that by no means is simple, but isn't so complex that we're coordinating outrageous Hollywood-like events to compliment the ceremony. Thankfully, there is an answer for us real-life brides... And it's this book. This book is utterly fantastic. If I had it to do over, I would have bought this book, and ONLY this book. The information is comprehensive and complete, while not being overwhelming or reading like a stereo manual. The worksheets they have are flexible, yet contain enough information that it's sure to help "remind" you of the things that you've forgotten or hadn't even considered. This book is blessedly practical in size, easily fitting into a bag or modest-sized purse, making it so easy to carry around and not at all cumbersome, something that in and of itself separates it from the competition since most planners are gigantic in size and girth, weighing more than a stack of Bibles and being larger than most coffee table books.
